no matter how improbable, must be the Truth. (Sherlock Holmes)

Neil & I, ruminating in the Ivory Tower at 36½ Union St, stumble constantly over last month's variation on a theme by Pogo:

We Have Met the Evil Empire and They Is US

This 50 year full circle is solid measure of the Professional War Machine's media success: anti-Communism is a US norm

Lest we despair, the General Secretary's charisma has promoted a post-summit red-shift. The January P.W.M. White Paper replaced Gorbachev's nice-guy media appearance with the "evil" T.V. image of Muamour Qaddafi. The White House now paints Lybia with the invective it once reserved for the Soviet Union.

Rest assured there will be no mini-summit. Actual chit-chat with "Mr. Terrorism" might hasten the natural demise of yet another P.W.M. paper-tiger.

Is the lightning-rod way around the Sandinista's shortest way home to internal peace and governance? (cont'd)

PWM's media campaign was given a boost in that direction when the NYTimes published an Op-Ed piece by Elliott Abrams, Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs.

KEEPING PRESSURE ON THE SANDINISTAS

.... the argument is not over who the Sandinistas are; it is over what can be done to stop their continuing repression and subversion .... there is no question that the Sandinista regime is repressive, and undemocratic and that it is subverting neighboring democratic Governments ....

There is now also concrete evidence that the Sandinistas support terrorism in South America .... it has become clear that Cuban combat troops, including pilots, play an increasingly important role in Sandinista efforts to crush democratic resistance ....

The administration is convinced that the Sandinistas are dedicated Communists .... [who] believe it is their right, their historic duty and in their strategic interest to spread their revolution beyond their borders ....

The Sandinistas' contempt for international law has been clear for some time .... (I/13/86)

Didn't the US prove in the World Court that the Sandinistas had mined their own harbor of Corinto and then blamed the US Contras for the propaganda benefit to be derived from accusing the US? ... or are we befuddled by Abrams too?

The Assistant Secretary was on firm ground with his condemnation. A month earlier his Commander-in-Chief had spoked of the "Communist Dictatorship in Nicaragua" on his Saturday radio chat.

.... It is a nation condemned to unrelenting cruelty by a clique of very cruel men by a dictator in designer glasses and his conrades drunk with power and all its brutal applications .... (NYTimes, XII/15/85)

Is this the pot calling the kettle black? What has the color of the Executive Branch's outpourings to do with assassinology? The answer lies in the PWM's success in the field, on the airwaves and in the press leaks and releases.

Knowing who fired the shots in Dealey Plaza's coup d'état of the Executive Branch leads into who paid to have those shots fired, which in turn suggests a study of the Executive Branch's actions before and after its complete seizure of the decision-making process in the White House. Media coverup of not only the assassination of the President, and the 200-odd strange deaths that followed, but also of the continued control of the climate of arrogance, myopia and Rambomania in which this ignorance can and does flourish, is very obvious,

Poet Yevgeny Yevtushenko's word "war-nography" (NYTimes, I/4/86) puts PWM's lies, dis information and half-truths into the same box with Media's diarrhea of the mouth. Mercenaries then relate them historically to Chairman Mao's

> .... Political power grows out of the barrel of a gun ...
> (XI/6/38)

and proceed to carry them into battle in 1983:

> When we were in Grenada, I really enjoyed myself. You were out there with your gun, shooting, taking prisoners, doing everything Marines are supposed to do.
> (WRL Peace Calendar) Lance Corporal Gordon Brock

Euphoria for the wrong reason permates the ranks from bottom to top. Standing tall in front of paper-tigers, soothing the natives with one-liners and ignoring financial reality makes this President (if that's the right word) far and away the best the PWM has ever shoved into the White House. No matter who is dredged up next, this is a hard act to follow.

> .... I personally think Reagan is a mere robot and parrot who repeats what is dictated to him without understanding the dimension of his words since he truly has no logic ....
> [name that source and win GKG 86 free]

Does this say Abrams is a reader or a dictator-member of Fletcher Prouty's Secret Team? We think the former's the more likely.

Two days after the Secretary's Op-Ed piece, NYTimes reporter Stephen Kinzer writes from Guatemala City that the Presidents of Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Colombia and Panama, and Vice President Bush, attended Guatemala President Cerezo's inauguration.

If subversion of his neighbors and exporting his revolution is Daniel Ortega's obsession, his hob-nobbing with the topmost echelons is the smartest way to change their minds. Think of all the ammo he'll have saved when Guatemala and Honduras go "Communist".

> .... Guatemala has been dominated by the military since a coup in 1954 that was planned [and executed] by the Central Intelligance Agency [ours, not theirs] ....
> Mr Cerezo this week reiterated his differences with American policy toward Nicaragua and defended his decision to invite Mr Ortega.
> "The role of Guatemala is to contribute to pease, and to contribute to peace one must favor discussion of problems not polarization," Mr Cerezo said ....
> (I/15/86)

[we must] oppose the logic of understanding to the logic of confrontation
M S Gorbachev, Paris, 1986

We have met the Evil Empire and they is US

POLITICAL MURDER, From Tyrannicide To Terrorism by Franklin L Ford
Illustrated, 440 pp, Harvard University Press, Cambridge, MA, $ 29.50

> Impressive for its broad sweep, its erudition and its readability, it is a unique attempt to survey the grim record of political assassinations from Biblical times to our own day and to assess the significance of that record.

This jacket-blurb by Gordon Wright, Stanford University, is as succinct as anyone can be about a story which starts before the dawn of history and ends inside its making. In sheer body-count it is unsurpassed. As a thought-processor, every page stimulates re-interpretation of common-knowledge events with another perspective. We thank Professor Ford for providing a dimension to the study of assassinology that has escaped many who have been tracking the US political murder-patsy-coverup routine these past two decades.

We cannot question Plutarch, Aemar de Chabannes, the Bible, Herodotus, the Koran, Machiavelli et al except that we read them all with more jaundiced eye than the author. It is when he digs in our own back yard, and his, that we find a weakness not only in his sources but also a by-passing of detail that causes this weakness to carunculate into collapse of his thesis.

First we applaud his treatment of Leon Czolgosz who was electrocuted for the assassination of McKinley in 1901.

> ....there is no suspicion that the fiery apostle of anarchism (Emma Goldman) sought to incite him to violence ...For Czolgosz ... the message was clear and the operative conclusion inescapable ...."I don't believe we should have any rulers. It is right to kill them" .... (p 361)

John Wilkes Booth also falls into the author's category of "principled tyrannicide". As ringleader of a conspiracy which failed to kidnap Lincoln, a month later Booth moved his death squad into the assassination mode. The author, writing about the political murders one hundred years after this tragedy, has no one but himself to blame for missing the mark many have shown to be the truth.

> .... it is hard to see how a work devoted to the phenomenon and problems of political murder could refuse to concern itself with .... unembarassed attention to the details .... as best it can be reconstructed out of the testimony both old and new ....we need to ponder most of all whether assassination works .... (emphasis in original) (pp 3-4)
> .... the history of countless assassinations, examined with an eye to comparing apparent motives with actual outcomes, contains almost none that produced results conconant with the doer, assuming those aims to have extended at all beyond the miserable taking of life.... (p 387)

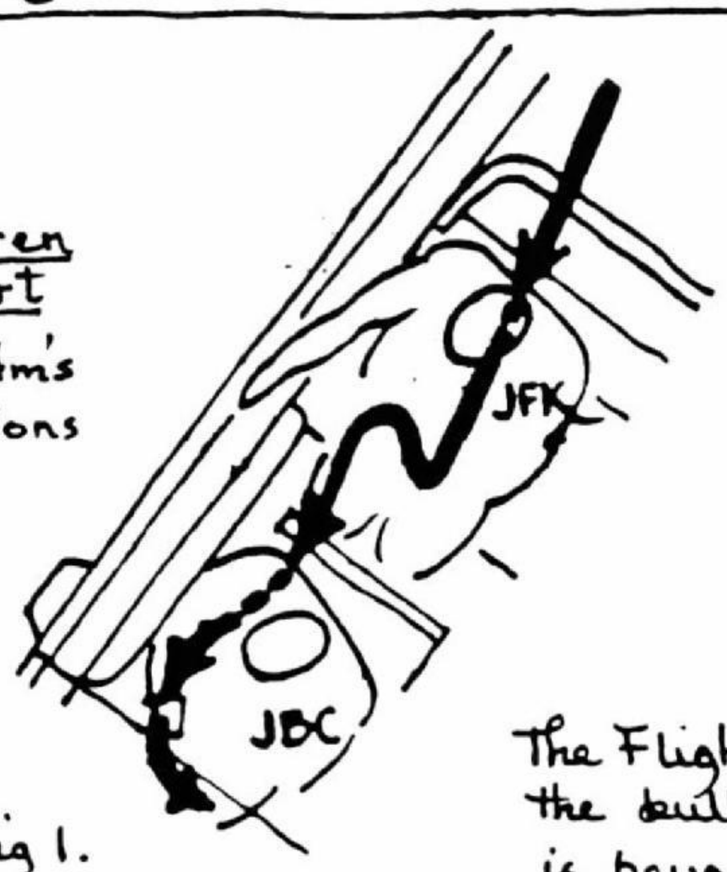
THREE "ASSASSINS" WHO COULDN'T SHOOT STRAIGHT



Warren Report
Z-film's positions

Fig 1.

Oswald caused 7 wounds in 2 men with 1 bullet?

The Oswald/Lone-Assassin Myth is based on Arlen Specter's Single-Bullet Theory which changed the Throat Wound from ENTRY to exit

The Flight of CE 399 is vintage UFOlogy..... the bullet's unassisted, mid-air zig-yaw-zag is beyond our ken, and yours?

The flightpath of the bullet fired from the roominghouse bathroom window (sic) cannot align with the Two wounds of entry, jaw & neck, observed at autopsy.... it is nonetheless the sole basis for the Ray/Lone-Assassin Myth

THREE PATSIES, NO MOTIVES, NO HATE

GKG·6·II/86

Do not, I beg of you, look anything behind phenomena.
They are themselves their own lessons. (Goethe)

Pondering these three flightpaths, advanced as truth by local and national police, Executive Branch "intelligence" agencies and a whimsical media, it is clear that with these accessories before and after the fact, assassination can and does work rather well.

Since WWII PWM has "won" everything it has planned except the Limited Test Ban Treaty and the presidential elections of 1960 & 1976. Success is measured by KA 007, Grenada, moneyism's deficient budget and foreign policy according to St Rambo. (Angola and Nicaragua BEWARE !) Screaming "terrorism" first at Russia, now at Lybia, PWM has obscured its death squads' political murders in our all-too-recent, uncivilized past.

With unembarassed attention to When, Where, How and Who we list the boring shot-wound relationships of the eleven (11) wounds whose erroneous inflictions are shown on page 6.

The Throat Wound of ENTRY, JFK, was caused by Novel's umbrella-weapon launching of a poisoned flêchette from the grassy knoll. The missile was removed from the throat at Bethesda's pre-autopsy surgery.
The Back Wound of ENTRY, JFK, was caused by Santana's second bullet fired from a 7th-floor window of the Dal-Tex Bldg. The missile was removed from the body at Bethesda's pre-autopsy surgery.
The Chest Wounds of ENTRY and EXIT, the Wrist Wounds of ENTRY and EXIT were caused by Seymour's first bullet fired from the southwesternmost, sixth-floor TSBD window. The missile ricochetted off a twig thru JBC's chest and wrist and the floorboards.
The Thigh Wound of ENTRY, JBC, was caused by a fragment of Seymour's second bullet, the fatal Head Shot, JFK. It's 7" above his left knee.

Figure 2
The Jaw Wounds of ENTRY and EXIT and the Neck Wound of ENTRY were caused by a bullet fired by "Jack Armstrong, the egge-and-sausage man", our only ID, from the bushy knoll across Mulberry St . Dr King was standing at the railing, facing ahead and down, talking to his friends in the motel parking space below.

The Head Wound of ENTRY was caused by a bullet fired by Cesar less than 2" from RFK's right ear. It entered the right mastoid and fragmented into the cerebellum. Sirhan was never closer than 48" in front of the Senator.

Anyone can, and almost everyone has conjured up motives for these three patsies. In this game it must be noted that the students of political and social sciences in SMU, North Dartmouth, MA and SUNY, Fredonia, NY, to name but two courses in assassination, are much closer to the truth than those in history at Harvard.

alias OSWALD collectors' edition 204 pp illus. hardcover

For years researchers into the John F Kennedy assassination have known that the Lee Harvey Oswald, 71 inches tall when discharged from the Marine Corps in 1959, was not the 69-inch "Oswald" Jack Ruby murdered in 1963 .... shrinking two inches between ages 20 and 24 is possible but unlikely despite the cold winters in Minsk.

This book by W R Morris and R B Cutler takes the research into this physical peculiarity to its logical conclusion that Ruby's victim was not Marguerite Oswald's third son Lee.

In October 1958 another Marine, a CIA agent-trainee named Alek James Hidell, was substituted for the real Oswald, given his papers and ID and slipped into Russia in an attempt to learn anything he could. Returned to the USA in June 1962, Hidell was assigned to the team infiltrating the conspiracy to assassinate the President. Framed as the patsy, he was murdered in a misbegotten attempt to coverup two obvious truths:

his own SUBSTITUTION and the JFK CONSPIRACY

The study of assassinology which this book promotes, broadens the historical perspective of the past 50 years, tinctures the understanding of Who occupies the Oval Office and WHY and, paraphrasing Pogo, brings us face to face with the Evil Empire: They is US.
